

Our Commitment

When selecting the Centre for Neurology Studies as your clinical research partner, we commit to:

- Work diligently to help you meet your major milestones on schedule and on budget.
- Use a quality management system that is built to support continual quality control, assurance, and improvement efforts.
- Maintaining the highest standards for regulatory and protocol adherence.
- Assigning a responsive single point of contact to coordinate communications.
- Get creative in our recruitment strategies to attract the right participants.
- Remain client-centered; going above and beyond to ensure our participants have a positive experience.
